

Faculty of Philology UO
English Philology
 BA level studies
MODULE LEARNING OUTCOMES
 since 2020-2021

---

MODULE 1: English and Cultural Studies

Symbol	Description of the learning outcomes	Reference to the PQF
KNOWLEDGE: GRADUATE
m-W-1	is familiar with the basic terminology of culture studies, including media studies, film studies, cultural geography, race/gender studies, digital cultures	P6S_WG
m-W-2	has the basic knowledge of social, economic, political and cultural institutions, and is acquainted with the current trends in cultural life of the countries of the English speaking area (the UK, the USA, the Commonwealth)	P6S_WK
SKILLS: GRADUATE
m-U-1	has the ability to search for, analyze, select and use information related to culture by consulting various academic and popular sources and tools, including digitalized online repositories	P6S_UO
m-U-2	can describe selected types of culture products and practices and carry out their critical analysis and interpretation in order to determine their (various) meanings, their social impact, and their place in cultural tradition and heritage of the English-speaking countries	P6S_UW
SOCIAL COMPETENCES: GRADUATE
m-K-1	is ready to make responsible and ethical use of cultural products and practices in- and out-of-classroom, including disseminating information that is credible and relevant	P6S_KR
m-K-2	shapes their own views regarding the significance of culture in the political and economic development of the society, particularly by being ready to identify ideologies and power relations that underpin cultural (re)production	P6S_KK

Faculty of Philology UO
English Philology
 BA level studies
MODULE LEARNING OUTCOMES
 since 2020-2021

---

MODULE 2: Translation Studies

Symbol	Description of the learning outcome	Reference to the PQF
Knowledge: Graduate
m-W-1	is familiar with the basic terminology and conceptual framework of translation studies	P6S_WG
m-W-2	has a working knowledge of the theoretical approaches to translation and the main research paradigms	P6S_WK
Skills: Graduate
m-U-1	has the ability to search for, analyze, select, and use information related to translation by consulting academic and popular sources and tools, including electronic ones, apply techniques for collecting data, and produce good-quality translations	P6S_UW
m-U-2	is able to analyze target language (TL) translations in relation to their source language (SL) texts and evaluate the former objectively and constructively	P6S_UW
Social competences: Graduate
m-K-1	is ready to make responsible and ethical use of translation products and practices in and out of the classroom	P6S_KR
m-K-2	shapes their own views regarding the significance of reliable translation for the development of the society and its general and specialized information needs	P6S_KK

Faculty of Philology UO
English Philology
 BA level studies
MODULE LEARNING OUTCOMES
 since 2020-2021

---

MODULE 3: English and Spanish

Symbol	Description of the learning outcome	Reference to the PQF
Knowledge: Graduate
m-W-1	has the ordered knowledge of the Spanish language; knows the lexical-grammatical and phonological rules of the Spanish language at the B2 level, and the rules of the selection of means for expressing specific types of information	P6S_WG
m-W-2	has the basic knowledge of institutions and cultural processes in the countries of the Spanish language area and is acquainted with current cultural life	P6S_WK
Skills: Graduate
m-U-1	has the ability to search for, analyze, select and use information utilizing various sources and methods, including online resources	P6S_UW
m-U-2	is able to use the Spanish language in writing and speaking at the level B2 of the Common European Framework for Languages with relative fluency, accuracy and communication efficiency in a wide range of general, cultural and business topics	P6S_UK
Social competences: Graduate
m-K-1	shapes their own views on the basis of the gained general and detailed knowledge of the Spanish language area	P6S_KK
m-K-2	has awareness of the responsibility for the preservation of the cultural heritage, and tolerance for cultural diversity of other countries and nationalities	P6S_KO

Faculty of Philology UO
English Philology
 BA level studies
MODULE LEARNING OUTCOMES
 since 2020-2021

---

MODULE 4: English and Italian

Symbol	Description of the learning outcome	Reference to the PQF
Knowledge: Graduate
m-W-1	has the ordered knowledge of the Italian language; knows the lexical-grammatical and phonological rules of the Italian language at the B2 level, and the rules of the selection of means for expressing specific types of information	P6S_WG
m-W-2	has the basic knowledge of institutions and cultural processes in Italy and is acquainted with current cultural life there	P6S_WK
Skills: Graduate
m-U-1	has the ability to search for, analyze, select and use information utilizing various sources and methods, including online resources	P6S_UW
m-U-2	is able to use the Italian language in writing and speaking at the level B2 of the Common European Framework for Languages with relative fluency, accuracy and communication efficiency in a wide range of general, cultural and business topics	P6S_UK
Social competences: Graduate
m-K-1	shapes their own views on the basis of the gained general and detailed knowledge of the Italian language area	P6S_KK
m-K-2	has awareness of the responsibility for the preservation of the cultural heritage, and tolerance for cultural diversity of other countries and nationalities	P6S_KO